ABOUT THIS COURSE

This Labour Inspector Master Class is designed to provide learners with comprehensive knowledge, practical skills, and workplace competencies required to effectively monitor, evaluate, and enforce compliance with labour legislation. The programme equips participants with a strong understanding of the legal and regulatory framework governing employment, ensuring they are able to apply relevant laws in real workplace situations.

Learners will gain in-depth insight into labour relations, collective agreements, and dispute resolution processes, enabling them to promote fair labour practices and maintain compliance within organisations. The course also focuses on the roles and responsibilities of labour inspectors, including planning and conducting inspections, identifying non-compliance, and implementing corrective actions.
